Visitors agree that confidentiality and privacy rights are not protected by engaging in or following TC's Facebook page or website, and may be waived upon "liking" or "following" Transformation Counseling, LLC's Facebook page.

Internet Links

This website and offered Facebook web page may contain links to other organizations that may provide useful information for users. Links may also exist from third party websites to the Transformation Counseling, LLC's website. Users acknowledge that Transformation Counseling, LLC is not in control of these sites and cannot control their content or practices. Existence of a link to or from the TC website does not indicate endorsement of any individual, organization, product or practice by Transformation Counseling, LLC, its officers, or volunteers.

Use of Content

Users agree to use interactive chat and bulletin board messaging functions included in this site responsibly. The use of obscene, libelous, profane, abusive, harmful, offensive, inaccurate, or otherwise objectionable language of any kind is prohibited. It is prohibited to use language or post materials that are unlawful or seems to encourage or promote illegal behavior. Transformation Counseling, LLC reserves the right to delete any postings and terminate a user's access to chat and/or bulletin board features at any time for any reason without notification.

Privacy Statement

Transformation Counseling, LLC does not obtain information that will personally identify website visitors, unless visitors choose to provide such information by using the site's interactive features including chat or message boards. Information about visitors' use of this website or Facebook page is collected automatically without any personal or identifying information. This includes: domain name from which a user accesses the Internet, the date and time and duration user was connected to the site, the Internet address of the website from which a user linked directly to this website, the type of browser used to access this site and the search engine and keywords used when searching for this site. This information is in aggregate to measure website performance.

Transformation Counseling, LLC does not give, rent, share, sell or transfer any personal information collected on this site or through any contact to Transformation Counseling LLC to any third party. When inquiries are e-mailed to Transformation Counseling, LLC, the message and email address is stored to allow staff to respond electronically.

When deemed appropriate at its sole discretion, Transformation Counseling, LLC may provide user information, including identifying information that may have been entered into the site by the user, to authorized law enforcement agencies when the site has been used in connection with illegal practices.
